Inquiry Learning

Inquiry Learning
Craighburn has developed a two-year cycle of inquiry based integrated curriculum units. The inquiry learning process involves students posing questions, researching, thinking critically to solve problems, and create new understandings. This builds self-responsible learners.

Teachers collaboratively plan units of Inquiry within the framework of the Australian Curriculum.